

NETWORKING

It is a core member benefit....The key to generating new business through your Association.

2016 Membership Directory

IMCO General Construction, Inc. received the 2015 AGC Build Washington Grand Award for Construction Excellence for its SR530 Incident-Debris Removal project in Snohomish County. The prestigious Build Washington Awards have a tradition of recognizing the most successful projects and safety records of AGC of Washington member firms.

www.agcwa.com

But what are you doing to reach out to fellow members to convince them to work with you?

Your AGC of Washington Membership Directory offers a real solution.

Where else can members find every member and every product or service available within your association?

By advertising in this publication you can inform and educate fellow members of your company's capabilities exactly when business decisions are in progress.

So, let your members know you intend to compete for their business.

Contact performance publishing today

to place your order

800-769-2391

performancepub4@cableone.net

